

Constitution of Pakistan 1956

Preamble

2nd March, 1956

In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful

Whereas sovereignty over the entire Universe belongs to Allah Almighty alone, and the authority to be exercised by the people of Pakistan within the limits prescribed by Him is a sacred trust;

Whereas the Founder of Pakistan, Quaid-i-Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah, declared that Pakistan would be a democratic State based on Islamic principles of social justice;

And whereas the Constitution Assembly, representing the people of Pakistan, have resolved to frame for the sovereign independent State of Pakistan a constitution;

Wherein the State should exercise its powers and authority through the chosen representatives of the people;

Wherein the principles of democracy, freedom, equality, tolerance and social justice as enunciated by Islam, should be fully observed;

Wherein the Muslims of Pakistan should be enabled individually and collectively to order their lives in accordance with the teachings and requirements of Islam, as set out in the Holy Quran and Sunnah;

Wherein adequate provision should be made for the minorities freely to profess and practise their religion and develop their culture;

Wherein the territories now included in or in accession with Pakistan and such other territories as may hereafter be included in or accede to Pakistan should form a Federation, wherein the Provinces would be autonomous with such limitations on their powers and authority as might be prescribed;

Wherein should be guaranteed fundamental rights including rights such as equality of status and of opportunity, equality before law, freedom of thought, expression, belief, faith, worship and association, and social, economic, and political justice, subject to law and public morality;

Wherein adequate provision should be made to safeguard the legitimate interests of minorities and backward and depressed classes;

Wherein the independence of the Judiciary should be fully secured;

Wherein the integrity of the territories of the Federation, its independence and all its rights, including its sovereign rights over land, sea and air should be safeguarded;

So that the people of Pakistan may prosper and attain their rightful and honoured place amongst the nations of the world and make their full contribution towards international peace and the progress and happiness of humanity.

Now therefore, we the people of Pakistan in our Constituent Assembly this twenty-ninth day of February, 1956, and the seventeenth day of Rajab, 1375, do hereby, enact and give to ourselves this Constitution.

Part 1. The Republic and its Territories

Article 1

(2) Notwithstanding anything in Part 2, a person shall not be qualified for election as President unless he is a Muslim; nor shall he be so qualified-

(a) if he is less than forty years of age; or

(b) if he is not qualified for election as a member of the National Assembly; or

(c) if he has previously been removed from the office of President by impeachment under Article 35.

(3) The validity of the election of the President shall not be questioned in any court.

Article 33

(1) Subject to clause (3) and Article 35 the President shall hold office for a term of five years from the date on which he enters upon his office:

Provided that notwithstanding the expiration of his term, the President shall continue to hold office until his successor enters upon his office.

(2) No person shall hold office as President for more than two terms.

(3) The President may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker of the National Assembly.

(4) When a vacancy occurs in the office of President by the death, resignation or removal of the President, or by the expiration of the terms of his office, it shall be filled as soon as may be, in accordance with clause (1) of Article 32.

Article 34

(1) The President shall not hold any office of profit in the service of Pakistan, or any other position carrying the right to remuneration for the rendering of services, but nothing in this clause shall prevent him from holding or managing any private property.

(2) The President shall not be qualified for election as a member of the National or a Provincial Assembly; and if a member of any such Assembly is elected as President his seat in that Assembly shall become vacant on the day on which he enters upon his office.

Article 35

(1) The President may be impeached on a charge of violating the Constitution or gross misconduct.

(2) No such charge shall be preferred unless not less than one-third of the total number of members of the National Assembly give to the Speaker of that Assembly notice of their intention to move a resolution for the impeachment of the President, and no such resolution shall be moved in the Assembly unless fourteen days have expired from the date on which notice of such resolution is communicated to the President.

(3) The President shall have the right to appear and be represented during the consideration of the charge.

(4) If, after the consideration of the charge, a resolution is passed by the National Assembly, but the votes of not less than three-fourths of the total number of members, declaring that the charge has been substantiated, the President shall vacate his office on the day on which the resolution is passed.

(5) Where the Speaker of the National Assembly is exercising the functions of the President under Article 36, the provisions of this Article shall apply subject to the modification that the reference to the Speaker in clause (2) shall be construed as a reference to the Deputy Speaker, and that the reference in clause (4) to the removal from office of the President shall be construed as a reference to the removal of the Speaker from his office as Speaker; and on the passing of a resolution such as is referred to in clause (4) the Speaker shall cease to exercise the functions of President.

Article 36

(1) If a vacancy occurs in the office of President, or if the President is absent from Pakistan or is unable to discharge the duties of his office owing to illness or any other cause, the Speaker of the National Assembly shall exercise the functions of President until a President is elected, or until the President resumes the duties of his office, as the case may be.

(2) For any period during which the Speaker of the National Assembly exercises the functions of President he shall be entitled to the same remuneration and privileges as are admissible to the President, but he shall not, during any such period, exercise any of the functions of the office of the Speaker or of a member of the National Assembly, or be entitled to the remuneration and privileges admissible to the Speaker or such a member.

Article 37

(2) The question whether any, and if so, what, advice has been tendered by the Cabinet, or a Minister or Minister of State, shall not be inquired into in any court.

(3) The President shall, in his discretion, appoint from amongst the members of the National Assembly a Prime Minister, who, in his opinion, is most likely to command the confidence of the majority of the members of the National Assembly.

(4) Other Ministers, Ministers of State and Deputy Ministers shall be appointed and removed from office by the President, but no person shall be appointed a Minister of State or Deputy Minister unless he is a member of the National Assembly.

(5) The Cabinet, together with the Ministers of State, shall be collectively responsible to the National Assembly.

(6) The Prime Minister shall hold office during the pleasure of the President, but the President shall not exercise his powers under this clause unless he is satisfied that the Prime Minister does not command the confidence of the majority of the members of the National Assembly.

(7) In the exercise of his functions, the President shall act in accordance with the advice of the Cabinet or the appropriate Minister or Minister of State, as the case may be, except in cases where he is empowered by the Constitution to act in his discretion, and except as respects the exercise of his powers under clause (6).

Explanation: For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that for the purposes of clause (4) the appropriate Minister shall be the Prime Minister.

(8) A Minister who for any period of six consecutive months is not a member of the National Assembly shall, at the expiration of that period, cease to be a Minister, and shall not before the dissolution of that Assembly be again appointed a Minister unless he is elected a member of that Assembly.

(9) Nothing in this Article shall be construed as disqualifying the Prime Minister or any other Minister, or a Minister of State or Deputy Minister, for continuing in office during any period during which the National Assembly stands dissolved, or as preventing the appointment of any person as Prime Minister or other Minister, or as Minister of State or Deputy Minister, during any such period.

Article 38

(1) The President shall appoint an Attorney-General for Pakistan, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the President, shall receive such remuneration as may be determined by the President, and shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the President.

(2) No person shall be qualified for appointment as Attorney-General for Pakistan unless he is qualified for appointment as a Judge of the Supreme Court, but no person shall be appointed as Attorney-General if he is or has been a Judge of the Supreme Court or of a High Court.

(3) In the performance of his official duties the Attorney-General shall have a right of audience in all courts in Pakistan.

Article 39

(1) The executive authority of the Federation shall vest in the President and shall be exercised by him, either directly or through officers subordinate to him, in accordance with the Constitution.

(2) The executive authority of the Federation shall extend to all matters with respect to which Parliament has power to make laws:

Provided that, save as expressly provided in the Constitution or in any Act of Parliament which Parliament is, under the Constitution, competent to enact for a Province, the said authority shall not extend in any Province to any matter with respect to which the Provincial Legislature also has power to make laws.

Article 40

(1) The Supreme Command of the Armed Forces shall vest in the President, and the exercise thereof shall be by law.

(2) Until Parliament makes provision by law in that behalf, the President shall have the power-

(a) to raise and maintain the Naval, Military and Air Forces of Pakistan and the Reserves of such Forces;

(b) to grant Commissions in such Forces; and (c) to appoint Commanders-in-Chief of the Army, Navy and Air Forces and determine their salaries and allowances.

Article 41

(1) All executive actions of the Federal Government shall be expressed to be taken in the name of the President.

(2) The President shall by rules specify the manner in which orders and other instruments made and executed in his name shall be authenticated, and the validity of any order or instrument so authenticated shall not be questioned in any court on the ground that it was not made or executed by the President

(3) The President shall also make rules for the allocation and transaction of the business of the Federal Government.

Article 42

It shall be the duty of the Prime Minister-

(a) to communicate to the President all decisions of the Cabinet relating to the administration of the affairs the Federation and proposals for legislation;

(b) to furnish such information relating to the administration of the affairs of the Federation and proposals for legislation as the President may call for; and

Provided that a woman who, under this clause, is a member of the Assembly at the time of the expiration of the said period of ten years shall not cease to be a member until the Assembly is dissolved.

(3) Parliament may by Act alter the number of members of the National Assembly, provided that equality of representation between East Pakistan and West Pakistan is preserved.

(4) Parliament may by Act provide for the representation in the National Assembly of any territory which is included in a Province after the Constitution Day, but no such Act shall alter the number of members to be elected by constituencies in that Province.

Article 45

(1) A person shall be qualified to be elected to the National Assembly -

(a) if he is not less than twenty-five years of age, and is qualified to be an elector for any constituency for the National Assembly under Article 143; and

(b) if he is not disqualified for being a member by the Constitution or an Act of Parliament.

(2) If any question arises whether a member has, after his election, become subject to any disqualification, the Speaker of the National Assembly shall obtain the opinion of the Election Commission and, if the opinion is that the member has incurred any disqualification, his seat shall become vacant.

(3) If any person sits or votes in the National Assembly knowing that he is not qualified for or is disqualified for, membership thereof, he shall be liable in respect of every day on which he so sits or votes to a penalty of five hundred rupees, which may be recovered from him as a debt due to the Federation.

Article 46

(1) No person shall at the same time be a member of National Assembly for two or more constituencies.

(2) Nothing in clause (1) shall prevent a person from being at the same time a candidate for two or more constituencies, but if a person has been elected as a member for two or more constituencies and does not, within thirty days of his election by the constituency by which he has been elected last, make a declaration in writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker specifying the constituency which he wishes to represent, all his seats in the National Assembly shall become vacant; but so long as a person is a member for two or more constituencies he shall not sit or vote in the Assembly.

(3) If a member of the National Assembly for one constituency permits himself to be nominated as a candidate for election by another constituency for the Assembly, his seat in respect of the former constituency shall become vacant.

Article 47

If a member of the National Assembly is absent from the Assembly, without leave of the Assembly, for sixty consecutive sitting days, his seat shall become vacant.

Article 48

If a member of the National Assembly fails to make and subscribe an oath or affirmation in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution within a period of six months from the date of the first meeting of the Assembly after his election, his seat shall become vacant:

Provided that the Speaker may, before the expiration of the said period, for good cause shown, extend the period,

(d) any sums required to satisfy any judgment, decree or award against Pakistan by any court or tribunal; and

(e) any other sums declared by the Constitution or by an Act of Parliament to be so charged.

Article 65

(1) So much of the Annual Financial Statement as relates to expenditure charged upon the Federal Consolidated Fund may be discussed in, but shall not be submitted to the vote of, the National Assembly.

(2) So much of the Annual Financial Statement as relates to other expenditure shall be submitted to the National Assembly in the form of demands for grants, and that Assembly shall have power to assent to, or to refuse to assent to any demand, or to assent to any demand subject to a reduction of the amount specified therein.

(3) No demand for a grant shall be made except on the recommendation of the President.

Article 66

(1) As soon as may be after the grants under the last preceding Article have been made by the National Assembly, there shall be introduced in the Assembly a Bill to provide for appropriation out of the Federal Consolidated Fund of all moneys required to meet-

(a) the grants so made by the National Assembly; and

(b) the expenditure charged on the Federal Consolidated Fund, but not exceeding in any case the amount shown in the statement previously laid before the National Assembly.

(2) No amendment shall be proposed in the National Assembly to any such Bill which shall have the effect of varying the amount or altering the destination of any grant so made.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, no money shall be withdrawn from the Federal Consolidated Fund except under appropriation made by law passed in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

Article 67

If in respect of any financial year it is found-

(a) that the amount authorized to be expended for a particular service for the current financial year is insufficient, or that a need has arisen for expenditure upon some new service not included in the Annual Financial Statement for that year, or

(b) that any money has been spent on any service during a financial year in excess of the amount granted for that service for that year;

the President shall have power to authorize expenditure from the Federal Consolidated Fund, whether the expenditure is charged by the constitution upon that Fund or not and shall cause to be laid before the National Assembly a Supplementary Financial Statement, or as the case may be, an Excess Financial Statement, setting out the amount of that expenditure, and the provisions of Articles 63 to 66 shall apply to the aforesaid statement as they apply to the Annual Financial Statement.

Article 68

(1) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this chapter, the National Assembly shall have power -

(a) to make any grant in advance in respect of the estimated expenditure for a part of any financial year pending the completion of the procedure prescribed in Article 65 for the voting of such grant and the passing of law in accordance with the provisions of Article 66 in relation to that expenditure;

(b) to make a grant for meeting an unexpected demand upon the resources of the Federation when on account of the magnitude or the indefinite character of the service, the demand cannot be specified with the details ordinarily given in an Annual Financial Statement;

(c) to make an exceptional grant which forms no part of the current service of any financial year;

and Parliament shall have power to authorize by law the withdrawal of moneys from the Federal Consolidated Fund for the purposes for which the said grants are made.

(2) The provisions of Articles 65 and 66 shall have effect in relation to the making of any grant under clause (1) and to any law to be made under that clause as they have effect in relation to the making of a grant with regard to any expenditure mentioned in the Annual Financial Statement and law to be made for the authorization of appropriation of money out of the Federal Consolidated Fund to meet such expenditure.

Article 69

(1) If at any time, except when the National Assembly is in session, the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render immediate action necessary, he may make and promulgate such Ordinances as the circumstances appear to him to require, and any Ordinance so made shall have the like force of law as an Act of Parliament, but the power of making Ordinances under this clause shall be subject to the like restrictions as the power of Parliament to make laws, and any Ordinance made under this clause may be controlled or superseded by any such Act.

(2) An Ordinance promulgated under clause (1) shall be laid before the National Assembly, and shall cease to operate at the expiration of six weeks from the next meeting of the Assembly, or if a resolution disapproving it is passed by the Assembly, upon the passing of that resolution.

(3) At any time when the National Assembly stands dissolved, the President may, if he is satisfied that circumstances exist which render such action necessary, make and promulgate an Ordinance authorizing expenditure from the Federal Consolidated Fund, whether the expenditure is charged by the Constitution upon that Fund or not, pending compliance with the provisions of Articles 63, 65 and 66.

(4) As soon as may be after the date of the reconstitution of the National Assembly, any Ordinance promulgated under clause

(3) shall be laid before the Assembly, and the provisions of Articles 63, 65 and 66 shall be complied with within six weeks from that date

Part 5: The Provinces

Chapter 1: The Provincial Government

Chapter 2: The Provincial Legislature

Chapter 1: The Provincial Government

Article 70

(1) There shall be a Governor of each Province who shall be appointed by the President and shall hold office during the pleasure of the President.

(2) No person shall be eligible for appointment as Governor unless he is a citizen of Pakistan and is not less than forty years of age.

(3) A Governor may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the President.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Article, a Governor shall hold office for a period of five years from the date on which he enters upon his office.

(5) A Governor shall not be a member of the National or a Provincial Assembly, and if a member of any such Assembly is appointed a Governor, his seat in that Assembly shall become vacant on the date on which he enters upon his office.

Article 71

(1) There shall be a Cabinet of Ministers with the Chief Minister at its head, to aid and advise the Governor in the exercise of his functions.

(2) The question whether any, and if so, what, advice has been tendered by the Cabinet or a Minister to the Governor shall not be inquired into in any Court.

(3) The Governor shall, in his discretion, appoint from amongst the members of the Provincial Assembly a Chief Minister, who, in his opinion, is most likely to command the confidence of the majority of the members of the Provincial Assembly.

(4) Other Ministers, Deputy Ministers and Parliamentary Secretaries shall be appointed and removed from office by the Governor, but no person shall be appointed a Deputy Minister or Parliamentary Secretary unless he is a member of the Provincial Assembly.

(5) The Cabinet shall be collectively responsible to the Provincial Assembly.

(6) The Chief Minister shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor, but the Governor shall not exercise his powers under this clause unless he is satisfied that the Chief Minister does not command the confidence of the majority of the members of the Provincial Assembly.

(7) In the exercise of his functions, the Governor shall act in accordance with the advice of the Cabinet or the appropriate Minister, as the case may be, except in cases where he is empowered by the Constitution to act in his discretion, and except as respects the exercise of his powers under clause (6).

Explanation.-For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that for the purposes of clause (4) the appropriate Minister shall be the Chief Minister.

(8) A Minister who for any period of six consecutive months is not a member of the Provincial Assembly shall at the expiration of that period, cease to be a Minister, and shall not before the dissolution of that Assembly be again appointed a Minister unless he is elected a member of that Assembly.

(9) Nothing in this Article shall be construed as disqualifying the Chief Minister or any other Minister, or a Deputy Minister or Parliamentary Secretary, for continuing in office during any period during which the Provincial Assembly stands dissolved, or as preventing appointment of any person as Chief Minister or other Minister or as Deputy Minister or Parliamentary Secretary, during any such period.

Article 72

(1) The Governor shall appoint an Advocate-General for the Province, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor, shall receive such remuneration as may be determined by the Governor, and shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor.

(2) No Person shall be qualified for appointment as Advocate-General unless he is qualified for appointment as a Judge of a High Court, but no person shall be appointed as Advocate-General if he is or has been a judge of the Supreme Court or of a High Court.

(3) A person shall not hold office as Advocate-General after he has attained the age of sixty-five years.

Article 73

(1) The executive authority of a Province shall vest in the Governor and shall be exercised by him either directly or through officers subordinate to him, in accordance with the Constitution.

(2) Except as expressly provided in the Constitution, the executive authority of a Province shall extend to all matters with respect to which the Provincial Legislature has power to make laws.

Article 74

(1) All executive actions of the Government of a Province shall be expressed to be taken in the name of the Governor thereof.

(2) The Governor shall by rules specify the manner in which orders and other instruments made and executed in his name shall be authenticated, and the validity of any order or instrument so authenticated shall not be questioned in any court on the ground that it was made or executed by the Governor.

(3) The Governor shall also make rules for the allocation and transaction of the business of the Provincial Government.

Article 75

It shall be the duty of the Chief Minister of each Province -

(a) to communicate to the Governor of the Province all decisions of the Cabinet relating to the administration of the affairs of the Province and proposals for legislation;

(b) to furnish such information relating to the administration of the affairs of the Province and proposals for legislation as the Governor may call for; and

(c) if the Governor so requires, to submit for the consideration of the Cabinet any matter on which a decision has been taken by a Minister but which has not been considered by the Cabinet.

Chapter 2: The Provincial Legislature

Article 76

There shall be a Provincial Legislature for each Province consisting of the Governor and one House, to be known as the Provincial Assembly.

Article 77

(1) Subject to the succeeding clauses, each Provincial Assembly shall consist of three hundred members.

(2) In addition to the seats in each Provincial Assembly for the members mentioned in clause (1), there shall, for a period of ten years from the Constitution Day, be ten seats reserved in each Provincial Assembly for women members only; and constituencies shall accordingly be delimited as women's territorial constituencies for this purpose:

Provided that a woman who, under this clause, is a member of a Provincial Assembly at the time of the expiration of the said period of ten years, shall not cease to be a member until the Assembly is dissolved.

(3) Parliament may by Act alter the number of the members of the Provincial Assemblies, provided that the number of members of the two Assemblies shall remain equal.

(4) Parliament may, with the consent of a Provincial Assembly, by Act provide for the representation in that Assembly, which is included in the Province after the Constitution Day but no such Act shall alter the number of members of the Assembly.

(5) Until the fourteenth day of October, 1965, the number of members of the Provincial Assembly of the Province of West Pakistan elected by constituencies in the territory which, immediately before the commencement of the Establishment of West Pakistan Act, 1955, constituted the Province of Punjab shall not be more than two-fifths of the total number of members of that Assembly.

Article 78

(1) A person shall be qualified to be elected to a Provincial Assembly -

(a) if he is not less than twenty-five years of age and is qualified to be an elector for any constituency for the Provincial Assembly under Article 143; and

(b) if he is not disqualified for being a member by the Constitution or an Act of Parliament.

(2) If any question arises whether a member has, after his election, become subject to any disqualification, the Speaker of the Provincial Assembly shall obtain the opinion of the Election Commission and, if the opinion is that the member has incurred any disqualification, his seat shall become vacant.

(3) If any person sits or votes in a Provincial Assembly knowing that he is not qualified for, or is disqualified for, membership thereof, he shall be liable in respect of every day on which he so sits or votes to a penalty of five hundred rupees, which may be recovered from him as a debt due to the Province.

Article 79

(1) No person shall at the same time be a member of the National Assembly and of a Provincial Assembly, and if a person has been elected as a member both of the National Assembly and of a Provincial Assembly, and does not, within thirty days of his election to the Assembly to which has been elected last, resign one of his seats, his seat in the Provincial Assembly shall become vacant.

(2) No person shall at the same time be a member of both Provincial Assemblies, and if a person elected as a member of both the Assemblies and does not, within thirty days of his election to the second Assembly, resign one of his seats, his seats in both the Assemblies shall become vacant.

(3) No person shall at the same time be a member of a Provincial Assembly for two or more constituencies; but nothing in this clause shall prevent a person from being at the same time a candidate for two or more constituencies, but if a person has been elected as a member for two or more constituencies and does not, within thirty days of his election by the constituency by which he has been elected last, make a declaration in writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker specifying the constituency which he wishes to represent, all his seats in the Assembly shall become vacant; but so long as a person is a member for two or more constituencies he shall not sit or vote in the Assembly.

(4) If a member of a Provincial Assembly for one constituency permits himself to be nominated as a candidate for election by another constituency for the Assembly, his seat in respect of the former constituency shall become vacant.

Article 80

If a member of a Provincial Assembly is absent from the Assembly, without leave of the Assembly, for sixty consecutive sitting days, his seat shall become vacant.

Article 81

If a member of a Provincial Assembly fails to make and subscribe an oath or affirmation in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution within a period of six months from the date of the first meeting of the Assembly after his election, his seat shall become vacant:

Provided that the Speaker may, before the expiration of the said period, for good cause shown, extend the period.

Article 82

A member of Provincial Assembly may resign his seat by notice in writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker.

Article 83

(1) The Governor may summon, prorogue or dissolve the Provincial Assembly and shall, when summoning the Assembly, fix the time and place of the meeting.

(2) Whenever a Chief Minister of a Provincial Government is appointed, the Provincial Assembly, if, at the time of the appointment, it is not sitting and does not stand dissolved, shall be summoned so as to meet within two months thereafter.

(3) Unless sooner dissolved, a Provincial Assembly shall stand dissolved on the expiration of five years after the date of its first meeting.

Article 84

There shall be at least two sessions of a Provincial Assembly in every year, and six months shall not intervene between the last sitting of the Assembly in one session, and its first sitting in the next session.

Article 85

The Governor of a Province may address the Provincial Assembly and may send messages thereto.

Article 86

Every Minister and the Advocate-General of a Province shall have the right to speak in, and otherwise take part in the proceedings of, the Provincial Assembly, and of any committee thereof of which he may be named a member, but shall not by virtue of this Article be entitled to vote.

Article 87

(1) Every Provincial Assembly shall, as soon as may be, choose two of its members to be respectively Speaker and Deputy Speaker thereof and, so often as the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker becomes vacant, the Assembly shall choose another member to be Speaker or Deputy Speaker, as the case may be.

(2) A member holding office as Speaker or Deputy Speaker shall vacate his office if he ceases to be a member of the Provincial Assembly, may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor, and may be removed from his office by a resolution of the Assembly passed by a majority of the total members thereof; but no resolution for the purpose of this clause shall be moved unless at least fourteen days' notice has been given of the intention to move the resolution:

Provided that whenever the Provincial Assembly is dissolved the Speaker shall not, by virtue of the dissolution, vacate his office until immediately before the first meeting of the Assembly after the dissolution.

(3) While the office of Speaker is vacant, or the Speaker is for any reason unable to perform the duties of his office, those duties shall be performed by the Deputy Speaker, or if the office of Deputy Speaker is also vacant, by such member of the Assembly as the Governor may appoint for the purpose; and during any absence of the Speaker from any sitting of the Assembly the Deputy Speaker, or if he also is absent, such person as may be determined by the rules of procedure of the Assembly, shall act as Speaker.

Article 88

(1) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution -

(a) the procedure of a Provincial Assembly shall be regulated by rules of procedure framed by the Assembly;

(b) a decision in a Provincial Assembly shall be taken by a majority of the members present and voting; but the person presiding shall not vote except when there is an equality of votes, in which case he shall have and exercise a casting vote;

(c) a Provincial Assembly shall have power to act notwithstanding any vacancy in the membership thereof, and any proceeding in the Assembly shall not be invalid only for the reason that some person who was not entitled to do so sat or voted, or otherwise took part in the proceedings.

(2) If at any time during a meeting of the Provincial Assembly the attention of the person presiding is drawn to the fact that less than forty members are present, it shall be the duty of the person presiding either to adjourn the Assembly, or to suspend the meeting until at least forty members are present.

Article 89

(1) The validity of any proceedings in a Provincial Assembly shall not be questioned in any court.

(2) No officer or member of a Provincial Assembly in whom powers are vested for the regulation of procedure, or the conduct of business, or the maintenance of order in the Assembly, shall, in relation to the exercise by him of any of those powers, be subject to the jurisdiction of any court.

(3) No member of a Provincial Assembly, and no person entitled to speak therein, shall be liable to any proceedings in any court in respect of anything said or any vote given by him in the Assembly or any committee thereof.

(4) No person shall be liable to any proceedings in any court in respect of the publication by or under the authority of a Provincial Assembly of any report, paper, vote or proceedings.

(5) Subject to this Article, the privileges of a Provincial Assembly, the committees and members thereof, and the persons entitled to speak therein may be determined by Act of the Provincial Legislature; but such privileges may not exceed those conferred on the National Assembly, its committees and members, and the persons entitled to speak therein.

Article 90

(1) When a Bill has been passed by a Provincial Assembly it shall be presented to the Governor, who shall, within ninety days:

(a) assent to the Bill; or

(b) reserve the Bill for the consideration of the President; or

(c) declare that he withholds assent from the Bill; or

(d) in the case of a Bill other than a Money Bill, return the Bill to the Assembly with a message requesting that the Bill, or any specified provision thereof, be reconsidered and that any amendments specified by him in the message be considered.

(2) When the Governor has reserved a Bill for the consideration of the President it shall be presented to the President, who shall, within ninety days:

(a) assent to the Bill; or

(b) declare that he withholds assent therefrom.

(3) When the Governor has declared that he withholds assent from a Bill, the Provincial Assembly shall be competent to reconsider the Bill, and if it is again passed, with or without amendment, by the Assembly, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting, it shall be again presented to the Governor, and the Governor shall assent thereto.

(4) When the Governor has returned a Bill to the Provincial Assembly it shall be reconsidered by the Assembly, and if it is again passed, with or without amendment, by the Assembly, by a majority of the total number of members of the Assembly, it shall be again presented to the Governor, and the Governor shall assent thereto.

Article 91

(1) In this Part "Money Bill" means a Bill containing only provisions dealing with all or any of the following matters, that is to say -

(a) the imposition, abolition, remission, alteration or regulation of any tax;

(b) the borrowing of money, or the giving of any guarantee, by the Provincial Government, or the amendment of the law relating to the financial obligations of that Government;

(c) the custody of the Provincial Consolidated Fund the payment of moneys into, or the issue or appropriation of moneys from, such Fund;

(f) any matter incidental to any of the matters specified in the aforesaid sub-clauses.

(2) A Bill shall not be deemed to be a Money Bill by reason only that -

(a) it provides for the imposition or alteration of any fine or other pecuniary penalty, or for the demand or payment of a licence fee, or a fee or charge for any service rendered; or (b) it provides for the imposition, abolition, remission, alteration, or regulation of any tax by any local authority or body for local purposes.

(3) Every Money Bill, when it is presented to the Governor for his assent, shall bear a certificate under the hand of the Speaker that it is a Money Bill, and such certificate shall be conclusive for all purposes and shall not be questioned in any court.

Article 92

No Bill or amendment which makes provision for any of the matters specified in clause (1) of Article 91, or which if enacted and brought into operation would involve expenditure from the Province, shall be introduced or moved in a Provincial Assembly except on the recommendation of the Governor.

Article 93

No tax shall be levied for the purposes of a Province except by or under the authority of an Act of the Provincial Legislature.

Article 94

(1) All revenues received by a Provincial Government, all loans raised by that Government, and all moneys received by it in repayment of any loan, shall form part of one consolidated fund, to be known as the Provincial Consolidated Fund.

(2) All other public moneys received by or on behalf of the Provincial Government shall be credited to the Public Account of the Province.

Article 95

(1) The custody of the Provincial Consolidated Fund, the payment of moneys into such Fund, the withdrawal of moneys therefrom, the custody of public moneys other than those credited to such Fund received by or on behalf of the Provincial Government, their payment into the Public Account of the Province, and the withdrawal of moneys from such Account, and all matters connected with or ancillary to matters aforesaid, shall be regulated by Act of the Provincial Legislature and, until provision in that behalf is so made, by rules made by the Governor.

(2) All moneys received by or deposited with-

(a) any officer employed in connection with the affairs of a Province in his capacity as such, other than revenues or public moneys raised or received by the Provincial Government;

(b) any court to the credit of any cause, matter, account or person in connection with the affairs of the Province; shall be paid into the Public Account of the Province.

Article 96

(1) The Governor shall, in respect of every financial year, cause to be laid before the Provincial Assembly a statement of the estimated receipts and expenditure of the Provincial Government for that year, in this part referred to as the Annual Financial Statement.

(2) The Annual Financial Statement shall show separately -

(a) the sums required to meet expenditure described by the Constitution as expenditure charged upon the Provincial Consolidated Fund; and

(b) the sums required to meet other expenditure proposed to be made from the Provincial Consolidated Fund; and shall distinguish expenditure on revenue account from other expenditure.

Article 97

The following expenditure shall be charged on the Provincial Consolidated Fund:-

(a) the remuneration payable to the Governor other expenditure relating to his office, and the remuneration payable to-

(i) the Judges of the High Court;

(ii) the members of the Provincial Public Service Commission; and

(iii) the Speaker and Deputy Speaker of the Provincial Assembly;

(b) the administrative expenses, including the remuneration payable to officers and servants, of the High Court, the Provincial Public Service Commission, and the Secretariat of the Provincial Assembly;

(c) all debt charges for which the Provincial Government is liable including interest, sinking fund charges, the repayment or amortization of capital and other expenditure in connection with the raising of loans and the service and redemption of debt on the security of the Provincial Consolidated Fund;

(d) any sums required to satisfy any judgment, decree or award against the Province by any court, or tribunal; and

(e) any other sums declared by the Constitution or by an Act of the Provincial Legislature to be so charged.

Article 98

(1) So much of the Annual Financial Statement as relates to expenditure charged upon the Provincial Consolidated Fund may be discussed in, but shall not be submitted to the vote of, the Provincial Assembly.

(2) So much of the Annual Financial Statement as relates to other expenditure shall be submitted to the Provincial Assembly in the form of demands for grants, and that Assembly shall have power to assent to, or to refuse to assent to any demand, or to assent to any demand subject to a reduction of the amount specified therein.

(3) No demand for a grant shall be made except on the recommendation of the Governor.

Article 99

(1) As soon as may be after the grants under the last preceding Article have been made by the Provincial Assembly there shall be introduced in the Assembly a Bill to provide for appropriation out of the Provincial Consolidated Fund of all moneys required to meet -

(a) the grants so made by the Provincial Assembly; and

(b) the expenditure charged on the Provincial Consolidated Fund; but not exceeding in any case the amount shown in the statement previously laid before the Provincial Assembly.

(2) No amendment shall be proposed in the Provincial Assembly to any such Bill which shall have the effect of varying the amount or altering the destination of any grant so made.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, no money shall be withdrawn from the Provincial Consolidated Fund except under appropriation made by law passed in accordance with the provisions of the Article.

Article 100

If in respect of any financial year it is found -

(a) that the amount authorized to be expended for a particular service for the current financial year is insufficient, or that a need has arisen for expenditure upon some new service not included in the Annual Financial Statement for that year; or

(b) that any money has been spent on any service during a financial year in excess of the amount granted for that service for that year;

the Governor shall have power to authorize expenditure from the Provincial Consolidated Fund, whether the expenditure is charged by the Constitution upon that Fund or not and shall cause to be laid before the Provincial Assembly a Supplementary Financial Statement, setting out the amount of that expenditure, and the provisions of Article 96 to 99 shall apply to the aforesaid statements as they apply to the Annual Financial Statement.

Article 101

(1) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this chapter, the Provincial Assembly shall have power -

(a) to make any grant in advance in respect of the estimated expenditure for a part of any financial year pending the completion of the procedure prescribed in Article 98 for the voting of such grant and the passing of the law in accordance with the provisions of Article 99 in relation to that expenditure;

(b) to make a grant for meeting an unexpected demand upon the resources of the Province when on account of the magnitude or the indefinite character of the service the demand cannot be specified with the details ordinarily given in an Annual Financial Statement;

(c) to make an exceptional grant which forms no part of the current service of any financial year;

and the Provincial Legislature shall have power to authorize by law the withdrawal of moneys from the Provincial Consolidated Fund for the purposes for which the said grants are made.

(2) The provisions of Article 98 and 99 shall have effect in relation to the making of any grant under clause (1) and to any law to be made under that clause as they have effect in relation to the making of a grant with regard to any expenditure mentioned in the Annual Financial Statement and law to be made for the authorization of appropriation of money out of the Provincial Consolidated Fund to meet such expenditure.

Article 102

(1) If at any time, except when the Provincial Assembly is in session, the Governor is satisfied that circumstances exist which render immediately action necessary, he may make and promulgate such Ordinances as the circumstances appear to him to require, and any Ordinance so made shall have the like force of law as an Act of the Provincial Legislature; but the power of making Ordinances under this clause shall be subject to the like restrictions as the power of the Provincial Legislature to make laws, and any Ordinance made under this clause may be controlled or superseded by any such Act:

Provided that the Governor shall not, without previous instructions from the President promulgate any such Ordinance if an Act of the Provincial Legislature containing the same provision would, under the Constitution, have been invalid unless it had received the assent of the President.

(2) An Ordinance promulgated under clause (1) shall be laid before the Provincial Assembly and shall cease to operate at the expiration of six weeks from the next meeting of the Assembly, or if a resolution disapproving it is passed by the Assembly, upon the passing of that resolution.

(3) At any time when the Provincial Assembly stands dissolved, the Governor may, if he is satisfied that circumstances exist which render such action necessary, make and promulgate an Ordinance authorizing expenditure from the Provincial Consolidated Fund, whether the expenditure is charged by the Constitution upon that Fund or not, pending compliance with the provisions of Articles 96, 98 and 99.

(4) As soon as may be after the date of the reconstitution of the Provincial Assembly, any Ordinance promulgated under clause

(3) shall be laid before the Assembly; and the provisions of Articles 96, 98 and 99 shall be complied within six weeks from that date.

Article 103

(1) In this Article the expression "excluded area" means an area which was an excluded area immediately before the Constitution Day.

(2) The executive authority of a Province shall extend to any excluded area therein but, notwithstanding anything in the Constitution, no Act of a Provincial Legislature shall apply to an excluded area unless the Governor by public notification so directs, and in giving such a direction with respect to any Act he may direct that the Act shall in its application to the area, or any specified part thereof, have effect subject to such exceptions or modifications as may be specified in the direction.

(3) The Governor may make regulations for the peace and good government of any excluded area in the Province, and any such regulations may repeal or amend any Act of Parliament, or of the Provincial Legislature, or any other law in force in the area:

Provided that no regulation repealing or amending an Act of Parliament shall take effect until it has been approved by the President.

(4) The President may by Order direct that the whole or any specified part of an excluded area shall cease to be an excluded area, and any such Order may contain such incidental and consequential provisions as appear to the President to be necessary and proper.

Article 104

(1) The executive authority of the Province of West Pakistan shall extend to the Special Areas, but notwithstanding anything in the Constitution, no Act of Parliament or of the Provincial Legislature shall apply to a Special Area or to any part thereof unless the Governor, with the previous approval of the President, so directs, and in giving such a direction with respect to any Act the Governor may direct that the Act shall, in its application to a Special Area, or to any specified part thereof, have effect subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be specified in the direction.

(2) The Governor may with the previous approval of the President, make regulations for the peace and good government of a Special Area, or any part thereof, and any regulation so made repeal or amend any Act of Parliament, or of the Provincial Legislature, or any other law in force in the Area.

(3) The President may, from time to time, give such directions to the Governor relating to the whole or any part of a Special Area as he may deem necessary, and the Governor shall, in the exercise of his functions under this Article, comply with such directions.

(4) The President may, at any time, by Order, direct that the whole or any part of a Special Area shall cease to be a Special Area, and any such Order may contain such incidental and consequential provisions as appear to the President to be necessary and proper:

Provided that before making any Order under this clause, the President shall ascertain, in such manner as he considers appropriate, the views of the people of the area concerned.

Chapter 1: Legislative Powers

Article 105

Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, Parliament may make laws, including laws having extra-territorial operation, for the whole or any part of Pakistan, and a Provincial Legislature may make laws for the Province or any part thereof.

Article 106

(1) Notwithstanding anything in the two next succeeding clauses, Parliament shall have exclusive power to make laws with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the Federal List.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in clause (3), Parliament, and subject to clause (1) a Provincial Legislature also, shall have power to make laws with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the Concurrent List.

(3) Subject to clauses (1) and (2), a Provincial Legislature shall have exclusive power to make laws for a Province or any part thereof with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the Provincial List.

(4) Parliament shall have power to make laws with respect to matters enumerated in the Provincial List, except for a Province or any part thereof.

Article 107

If it appears to the Provincial Assemblies to be desirable that any of the matters enumerated in the Provincial List, or any matter not enumerated in any list in the Fifth Schedule should be regulated in the Provinces by Act of Parliament and if resolutions to that effect are passed by the Provincial Assemblies, it shall be lawful for Parliament to pass an Act regulating that matter accordingly, but any Act so passed may, as respects any Province, be amended or repealed by an Act of the Legislature of that Province.

Article 108

Parliament shall have power to make laws for the whole or any part of Pakistan for implementing any treaty agreement or convention between Pakistan and any other country, or any decision taken at any international body, notwithstanding that it deals with a matter enumerated in the Provincial List or a matter not enumerated in any list in the Fifth Schedule:

Provided that no law under this Article shall be enacted except after consultation with the Governor of the Province to which the law is to be applied.

Article 109

Subject to the provisions of Articles 107 and 108, the Provincial Legislature shall have exclusive power to make the laws with respect to any matter not enumerated in any list in the Fifth Schedule, including any law imposing tax not mentioned in any such list; and the executive authority of the Province shall extend to the administration of any law so made.

Article 110

(1) If any provision of an Act of a Provincial legislature is repugnant to any provision of an Act of Parliament, which Parliament is competent to enact, or to any provision of any existing law with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the Concurrent List, then, subject to the provisions of clause (2), the Act of Parliament, whether passed before or after the Act of the Provincial Legislature, or, as the case may be, the existing law, shall prevail and the Act of the Provincial Legislature shall, to the extent of the repugnancy, be void.

(2) Where an Act of a Provincial Legislature with respect to any of the matters in the Concurrent List contains any provision repugnant to the provisions of an earlier Act of Parliament or an existing law with respect to that matter, then, if the Act of the Provincial Legislature, having been reserved for the consideration of the President, has received his assent, the Act of the Provincial Legislature shall prevail in the Province concerned, but nevertheless Parliament may at any time enact any law with respect to the same matter, amending or repealing the law so made by the Provincial Legislature.

Article 111

(1) Where under any provision of the Constitution the previous recommendation of the President or of a Governor is required to the introduction of a Bill or the moving of an amendment, the making of the recommendation shall not preclude him from exercising subsequently in regard to the Bill in question any powers conferred on him by the Constitution with respect to the withholding of assent to, or the returning or reservation of, Bills.

(2) No Act of Parliament or a Provincial Legislature, and no provision in any such Act, shall be invalid by reason only that some previous recommendation was not made, if assent to that Act was given -

(a) Where the previous recommendation required was that of the Governor, either by the Governor, or by the President; and

(b) Where the previous recommendation required was that of the President, by the President.

Chapter 2: Financial Provisions

Article 112

(1) The Government of a Province shall not be liable to taxation under any Act of Parliament in respect of land or buildings situated in Pakistan, or income accruing, arising or received in Pakistan:

Provided that where a trade or business of any kind is carried on by or on behalf of the Government or a Province outside that Province, nothing in this Article shall exempt that Government from any Federal taxation in respect of that trade or business, or any operation connected there with, or any income arising in connection therewith, or any property occupied for the purposes thereof.

(2) Property vested in the Federal Government shall, save in so far as an Act of Parliament may otherwise provide, be exempted from all taxes imposed by, or by any authority within, a Province.

(3) Nothing in this Article shall prevent the imposition of fees for services rendered.

Article 113

Save in so far as Parliament may by law otherwise provide, no Act of a Provincial Legislature shall impose or authorize the imposition of a tax upon the consumption or sale of electricity which is consumed by the Federal Government, and any Act a Provincial Legislature imposing or authorizing the imposition of a tax on the sale of electricity shall secure that the price of electricity sold to the Federal Government for consumption by that Government shall be less by the amount of the tax than the price charged to other consumers of a substantial quantity of electricity.

Article 114

Parliament may by law make grants in aid of the revenues of a Province which may be in need of assistance.

Article 115

The executive authority of the Federation shall extend to borrowing upon the security of the Federal Consolidated Fund within such limits, if any, as may be determined by Act of Parliament, and to the giving of guarantees within such limits, if any, as may be so determined.

Article 116

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article the executive authority of a Province shall extend to borrowing upon the security of the Provincial Consolidated Fund within such limits, if any, as may be determined by Act of the Provincial Legislature, and to the giving of guarantees within such limits, if any, as may be so determined.

(2) The Federal Government may, subject to such conditions, if any, as it may think fit to impose, make loans to, or, so long as any limits determined under the last preceding Article are not exceeded, give guarantees in respect of loans raised by, a Province and any sums required for the purpose of making loans to a Province shall be charged on the Federal Consolidated Fund.

(3) A Province may not without the consent of the Federal Government borrow outside Pakistan, nor without the like consent raise any loan if there is still outstanding any part of a loan made to the Province by the Federal Government or in respect of which a guarantee has been given by the Federal Government.

(4) A consent under this Article may be granted subject to such conditions, if any, as the Federal Government may think fit to impose, but no such consent shall be unreasonably withheld, nor shall the Federal Government refuse, if sufficient cause is shown, to make a loan to, or to give a guarantee in respect of a loan raised by, a Province, or seek to impose in respect of any of the matters aforesaid any condition which is unreasonable; and, if any dispute arises whether a refusal of consent, or a refusal to make a loan or to give a guarantee, or any condition insisted upon, is or is not justifiable, the dispute shall be settled in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Article 129.

Article 117

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Article 106, no Provincial law relating to taxes for the benefit of a Province or of a municipality, district board, local board, or other local authority therein in respect of professions, callings or employments shall be invalid on the ground that it relates to a tax on income.

(2) The total amount payable in respect of any one person to a Province or to anyone municipality, district board, local board or other local authority in the Province by way of taxes on professions, trades, callings and employments shall not exceed fifty rupees per annum.

(3) The fact that a Provincial Legislature has power to make laws as aforesaid with respect to taxes on professions, trades, callings and employments shall not be construed as limiting, in relation to professions, trades, callings and employments, the generality of the entry in the Federal List relating to taxes on income.

Article 118

(1) As soon as may be after the Constitution Day, and thereafter at intervals not exceeding five years, the President shall constitute a National Finance Commission consisting of the Minister of Finance of the Federal Government, the Ministers of Finance of the Provincial Governments, and such other persons as may be appointed by the President after consultation with the Governors of the Provinces.

(2) It shall be the duty of the National Finance Commission to make recommendations to the President as to -

(a) the distribution between the Federation and the Provinces of the net proceeds of the taxes mentioned in clause (3);

(b) the making of grants-in-aid by the Federal Government to the Governments of the Provinces;

(c) the exercise by the Federal Government and Provincial Governments of the borrowing powers conferred by the Constitution; and

(d) any other matter relating to finance referred to the Commission by the President.

Explanation. - In this Article "net proceeds" means, in relation to any tax, the proceeds thereof reduced by the cost of collection.

(3) The taxes referred to in paragraph (a) of clause (2) are following taxes raised under the authority of Parliament namely:

(a) export duty on jute and cotton, and any other specified export duty;

(b) taxes on income other than corporation tax;

(c) specified duties of Federal excise;

(d) taxes on sales and purchases; and

(e) any other specified tax.

(4) As soon as may be after receiving the recommendations of the National Finance Commission, the President shall by Order specify, in accordance with the recommendations of the Commission under sub-clause (a) of clause (2), the share of the net proceeds of the taxes mentioned in clause (3) which is to be allocated to each Province, and that share shall be paid to the Government of the Province concerned, and shall not form part of the Federal Consolidated Fund.

(5) The recommendations of the National Finance Commission, together with an explanatory memorandum as to the action taken thereon, shall be laid before the National Assembly and the Provincial Assemblies.

Article 119

No Provincial Legislature or Provincial Government shall have power-

(a) to pass any law, or take any executive action, prohibiting or restricting the entry into, or export from, the Province of goods of any class or description; or

(b) to impose any taxes, cesses, tolls or dues which, as between goods manufactured or produced in the Province and similar goods not so manufactured or produced, discriminate in favour of the former, or which, in the case of goods manufactured or produced outside the Province, discriminate between goods manufactured or produced in any locality and similar goods produced in any other locality: Provided that no Act of a Provincial Legislature which imposes any reasonable restriction in the interest of public health, public order or morality shall be invalid under this Article if it is otherwise valid under the Constitution; but any Bill for this purpose passed by the Provincial Assembly shall be reserved for the assent of the President, and shall not become law unless the President assents hereto.

Chapter 3: Audit and Accounts

Article 120

(1) there shall be a Comptroller and Auditor-General of Pakistan, who shall be appointed by the President.

(2) The terms and conditions of service and the term of office of the Comptroller and Auditor-General shall be determined by Act of Parliament, and until so determined, by rules made by the President.

Article 121

(1) A person who has held office as Comptroller and Auditor-General shall not be eligible for further appointment in the service of Pakistan.

(2) The Comptroller and Auditor-General shall not be removed from office before the expiration of the term of his office except on the like grounds and in the like manner as a judge of a High Court.

Article 122

The Comptroller and Auditor-General shall perform such duties and exercise such powers, in relation to the expenditure and accounts of the Federation and of the Provinces, as may be provided by Act of Parliament.

Article 123

The accounts of the Federation and of the Provinces shall be kept in such form as the Comptroller and Auditor-General may, with the approval of the President, prescribe.

Article 124

The reports of the Comptroller and Auditor-General accounts of the Federation shall be submitted to the President, who shall cause them to be laid before the National Assembly, and his reports relating to the accounts of a Province shall be submitted to the Governor, who shall cause them to be laid before the Provincial Assembly.

Chapter 4: Administrative relations between the federation and the provinces

Article 125

It shall be the duty of the Federal Government to protect each Province against external aggression and internal disturbance, and to ensure, subject to the provisions of Part XI, that the Government of every Province is carried on in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution.

Article 126

(1) The executive authority of every Province shall be so exercised-

(a) as to ensure compliance with Acts of Parliament and existing laws which apply to that Province, and

(b) as not to impede or prejudice the exercise of the executive authority of the Federation.

(2) The executive authority of the Federation shall extend to the giving such directions to a Province as may appear to the Federal Government to be necessary for the purposes of clause (1), and the said authority shall also extend to the giving of directions to a Province -

(a) as to the construction and maintenance of means of communication declared in such direction to be of national or military importance;

(b) as to the measures to be taken for the protection of railways within the Province;

(c) as to the manner in which the executive authority of the Province is to be exercised for the purpose of preventing any grave menace to the peace or tranquility or economic life of Pakistan, or any part thereof; and

(d) as to the carrying into execution in the Province of any Act of Parliament which relates to a matter enumerated in Part II of the Concurrent List and authorizes the giving of such directions.

(3) Where in carrying out any direction given to a Province under sub-clauses (a) and (b) of clause (2), costs have been incurred in excess of those which would have been incurred by the Provincial Government in the discharge of the normal duties of that Government if such directions has not been given, there shall be paid by the Federal Government to the Provincial Government such sums as may be agreed, or in default of agreement, as may be determined in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Article 129.

Article 127

(1) Notwithstanding anything in the Constitution, the President may, with the consent of a Provincial Government, entrust either conditionally or unconditionally to that Government, or to any officer thereof, functions in relation to any matter to which the executive authority of the Federation extends.

(2) An Act of Parliament may, notwithstanding that it relates to a matter with respect to which a Provincial Legislature has not the power to make laws, confer powers and impose duties, or authorize the conferment of powers and the imposition of duties, upon a Province or officers authorities thereof.

(3) Where by virtue of this Article powers and duties have been conferred or imposed upon a Province, or officers or authorities thereof, there shall be paid by the Federal Government to the Provincial Government such sums as may be agreed, or, in default of agreement, as may be determined in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Article 129, in respect of any extra costs incurred by the Provincial Government in connection with the exercise of those powers and duties.

Article 128

Part 10: Services

Chapter 1: Services

Article 179

(1) No person who is not a citizen of Pakistan shall be eligible to hold any office in the service of Pakistan:

Provided that the President, or in relation to a Province, the Governor, may authorize the temporary employment of a person who is not a citizen of Pakistan:

Provided further that a person who is, immediately before the Constitution Day, a servant of the Crown in Pakistan shall not be disqualified from holding any office in the service of Pakistan on the ground only that he is not a citizen of Pakistan.

(2) Except as expressly provided by the Constitution, the appointment of persons in the service of Pakistan may be regulated by Act of the appropriate legislature.

Except as expressly provided by the Constitution-

(a) every person who is a member of a defence service, or of a civil service of the Federation, or of an All Pakistan Service, or holds any post connected with defence, or a civil post in connection with the affairs of the Federation, shall hold office during the pleasure of the President, and

(b) every person who is a member of a civil service of a Province or holds any civil post in connection with the affairs of a Province, other than a person mentioned in paragraph (a) of this article, shall hold office during the pleasure of the Government.

Article 181

(1) No person who is a member of a civil service of the Federation or of a Province or of an All-Pakistan Service, or holds a civil post in connection with the affairs of the Federation, or of a Province, shall be dismissed or removed from service, or reduced in rank, by an authority subordinate to that by which he was appointed.

(2) No such person as aforesaid shall be dismissed or removed from service, or reduced in rank, until he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken in regard to him:

Provided that this clause shall not apply-

(a) where a person is dismissed or removed from service or reduced in rank on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge; or

(b) where an authority empowered to dismiss or remove from service a person, or to reduce him in rank, is satisfied that for some reason, to be recorded by that authority, it is not reasonably practicable to give that person an opportunity of showing cause; or

(c) where the President or the Governor, as the case may be, is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by him, that in the interest of the security of Pakistan or any part thereof, it is not expedient to give to that person such an opportunity.

Article 182

(1) Except as expressly provided by the Constitution or an Act of the appropriate legislature, appointments to service, the civil services of, and civil post in the service of, Pakistan shall be made -

(a) in the case of services of the Federation and posts in connection with the affairs of the Federation, by the President or such person as he may direct;

(b) in the case of services of a Province and posts in connection with the affairs of a Province, by the Governor of the Province, or such person as he may direct.

(2) Except as expressly provided by the Constitution, or an Act of the appropriate legislature, the conditions of service of persons serving in a civil capacity shall, subject to the provision of this Article, be such as may be prescribed -

(a) in the case of persons serving in connection with the affairs of the Federation, by rules made by the President, or by some person authorized by the President to make rules for the purpose;

(b) in the case of persons serving in connection with the affairs of a Province, by rules made by the Governor of the Province, or by some person authorized by the Governor to make rules for the purpose:

Provided that it shall not be necessary to make rules regulating the conditions of service of persons employed temporarily on the constitution that their employment may be terminated on one month's notice or less; and nothing in this clause shall be construed as requiring the rules regulating the conditions of service of any class of persons to extend to any matter which appears to the rule-making authority to be a matter not suitable for regulation by rule in the case of that class:

Provided further that no such Act as is referred to in this clause shall contain anything inconsistent with the provisions of clause(3).

(3) The rules under clause (2) shall be so framed as to secure-

(a) that the tenure and conditions of service of any person to whom this Article applies shall not be varied to his disadvantage; and (b) that every such person shall have at least one appeal against any order which-

- (i) punishes or formally censures him; or
- (ii) alters or interprets to his disadvantage any rule affecting his conditions of service; or
- (iii) terminates his employment otherwise than upon his reaching the age fixed for superannuation:

Provided that when any such order is the order of the President or the Governor, the person affected shall have no right of appeal, but may apply for review of that order.

Article 183

(1) In the Constitution "All-Pakistan Services" means the services common to the Federation and the provinces which were the All-Pakistan Services immediately before the Constitution Day.

(2) Parliament shall have exclusive power to make laws with respect to the All-Pakistan Services.

(3) Articles 182 and 188 shall apply to the All-Pakistan Services as they apply to Services of the Federation.

(4) No member of an All-Pakistan Service shall be transferred to a Province to serve in connection with the affairs of that Province, or be transferred from that Province, except by order of the President made after consultation with the Governor of that Province.

(5) While a member of an All-Pakistan Service is serving in connection with the affairs of a Province, his promotion and transfer within that Province, and the initiation of any disciplinary proceedings against him in relation to his conduct in that Province, shall take place by order of the Governor of that Province.

Chapter 2: Public Service Commissions

Article 184

(1) Subject to the provisions of this article, there shall be a Public Service Commission for the Federation, and a Public Service Commission for each Province.

(2) The Public Service Commission for the Federation, if requested so to do by the Governor of a Province, may with the approval of the President exercise all or any of the functions of the Public Service Commission of the Province.

(3) Where the Federal Public Service Commission is exercising the functions of a Provincial Public Service Commission in respect of any matter, references in the Constitution or in any Act to the Provincial Public Service Commission shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed, in relation to that matter, as references to the Federal Public Service Commission.

Article 185

In the case of the Federal Public Service Commission Public Service President, and in the case of a Provincial Public Service Commission the Governor, may by regulations determine

- (a) the number of members of the Commission and their conditions of service; and
- (b) the number of members of the staff of the Commission and their conditions of service.

Article 186

(1) The Chairman and other members of a Public Service Commission shall be appointed, in the case of the Public Service Commission by the President in his discretion, Provincial Public Service Commission by the Governor of the Province in his discretion.

(2) Not less than one half of the members of a Public Service Commission shall be persons who have held office in the service of Pakistan for not less than fifteen years.

Explanations: For the purposes of this Article the service of Pakistan shall be deemed to include the service of the Crown in British India, and the service of the Crown in Pakistan before the Constitution Day.

(3) The term of office of the Chairman and other members of the Provincial Public Service Commission shall be five years.

(4) Any member of a Public Service Commission may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed, in the case of the Federal Public Service Commission to the President, and in the case of a Provincial Public Service Commission to the Governor.

(5) On ceasing to hold office-

(a) the Chairman of the Federal Public Service Commission shall not be eligible for further employment in the service of Pakistan

(b) the Chairman of a Provincial Public Service Commission shall be eligible for appointment as Chairman or other member of the Federal Public Service Commission, or as Chairman of another Provincial Public Service Commission, but shall not be eligible for any other employment in the service of Pakistan ; and

(c) a member of a Public Service Commission, other than the Chairman thereof, shall be eligible for appointment as Chairman or other member of any Public Service Commission other than that on which he has already served, but shall not be eligible for any other employment in the service of Pakistan.

Provided that a person who is a member of a Public Service Commission may be appointed as Chairman of that Commission for the un-expired term of his office.

Article 187

(1) A member of a Public Service Commission shall not be removed from office except on the ground of misbehaviour or infirmity of mind or body.

(2) A member of the Federal Public Service Commission shall not be removed from office except in the manner applicable to a Judge of a High Court.

(3) A member of a Provincial Public Service Commission shall not be removed from office except by an order of the Governor of the Province made in a case where the Supreme Court, on reference having been made to it by the Governor, has reported that the member ought to be removed on a ground such as is mentioned in clause(1).

Article 188

(1) It shall be the duty of the Federal Public Service Commission and a Provincial Public Service Commission to conduct examinations for appointment to the services and posts connected with the affairs of the Federation, or the Province, as the case may be.

(2) The President, in respect of services and posts in connection with affairs of the Federation, and the Governor of a Province, in respect of services and posts in connection with the affairs of the Province, may make regulations specifying the matters in which generally or in any particular class of case, or in any particular circumstances, it shall not be necessary for a Public Service Commission to be consulted; but, subject to such regulations, the appropriate Public Service Commission shall be consulted-

- (a) on all matters relating to methods of recruitment to civil services and posts, and qualifications of candidates for such services and posts;
- (b) on the principles to be followed in making appointments to civil services and posts and in making promotions and transfers from one service to another, and on the suitability of candidates for such appointments, promotions or transfers;
- (c) on all disciplinary matters affecting a person in the service of the Federal or a Provincial Government in a civil capacity, including compulsory retirement whether for disciplinary reasons or otherwise, and memorials or petitions relating to such matters;
- (d) on any claim by or in respect of a person who is serving or has served under the Federal or a Provincial Government in a civil capacity that any costs incurred by him in defending any legal proceedings instituted against him in respect of acts done or purported to be done in the execution of his duty should be paid out of the Federal Consolidated Fund or the Provincial Consolidated Fund, as the case may be;
- (e) on any proposal to withhold a special or additional pension or to reduce an ordinary pension ; and
- (f) on any claim for the award of a pension or allowance in respect of injuries sustained while serving under the Federal or a Provincial Government in a civil capacity, and any question as to the amount of any such award; and it shall be the duty of the Public Service Commission to advise on any matter so referred to them, and on any other matter which the President or the Governor, as the case may be, may refer to the Commission.

(3) Where under the Constitution or any law, rules are made for regulating the appointment or, conditions of service of persons in the service of Pakistan, but not under the control of the Federal Government or a Provincial Government, such rules may provide for consultation with the appropriate Public Service Commission; and, subject to any express provision of the Constitution or of the said law, clause (2) shall apply mutates mutants.

Article 189

An Act of Parliament may provide for the exercise of additional functions by the Federal Public Service Commission, and an Act of a Provincial Legislature may provide for the exercise of additional functions by the Provincial Public Service Commission.

Article 190

(1) It shall be the duty of the Federal Public Service Commission to present to the President annually, a report on the work done by the Commission, and the President shall cause a copy of the report to be laid before the National Assembly; and it shall be the duty of each Provincial Public Service Commission to present to the Governor annually a report on the work done by the Commission, and the Governor shall cause a copy of the report to be laid before the Provincial Assembly.

(2) The report shall be accompanied by a memorandum setting out-

- (a) the cases, if any, in which the advice of the Commission was not accepted and the reasons therefor;

(b) the matters, if any, on which the Commission ought to have been consulted, but was not consulted, and the reasons therefor.

Part 11: Emergency Provisions

Article 191

(1) If the President is satisfied that a grave emergency exists in which the security or economic life of Pakistan, or any part thereof, is threatened by war or external aggression, or by internal disturbance beyond the power of a Provincial Government to control, he may issue a Proclamation of Emergency in this Article referred to as a Proclamation.

(2) While a Proclamation is in operation notwithstanding anything in the Constitution-

(a) Parliament shall have power to make laws for a Province, or any part thereof, with respect to any matter not enumerated in the Federal or the Concurrent List;

(b) the executive authority of the Federation shall extend to the giving of directions to a Province as to the manner in which the executive authority of the Province is to be exercised; and

(c) the President may by Order assume to himself to direct the Governor of a Province to assume on behalf of the President, all or any of the functions of the Government of the Province, and all or any of the powers vested in, or exercisable by any body or authority in the Province other than the Provincial Legislature, and make such incidental and consequential provisions as appear to the President to be necessary or desirable for giving effect to the objects of the Proclamation, including provisions for suspending, in whole or in part, the operation of any provisions of the Constitution relating to any body or authority in the Province:

Provided that nothing in sub-clause (c) shall authorize the President to assume to himself, or direct the Governor of the Province to assume on his behalf, any of the powers vested in or exercisable by a High Court, or to suspend either in whole or in part the operation of any provisions of the Constitution relating to High Courts.

(3) The Power of Parliament to make laws for a Province with respect to any matter shall include power to make laws conferring powers and imposing duties, or authorizing the conferring of powers and the imposition of duties, upon the Federation, of officers and authorities of the Federation, as respects that matter.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall restrict the power of a Provincial Legislature to make any law which under the Constitution it has power to make, but if any provision of a Provincial law is repugnant to any provision of a Federal law, which Parliament has under this Article power to make, the Federal law, where passed before or after the Provincial law, shall prevail and the Provincial law, shall, to the extent of the repugnancy, but so long only as the Federal law continues to have effect, be void.

(5) A law made by Parliament which Parliament would not but for the issue of a Proclamation have been competent to make, shall, to the extent of the incompetency, cease to have effect on the expiration of a period of six months after the Proclamation has ceased to operate, except as respects things done or omitted to be done before the expiration of the said period.

(6) A Proclamation shall be laid before the National Assembly as soon as conditions made it practicable for the President to summon that Assembly, and if approved by the Assembly, shall remain in force until it is revoked, or if disapproved, shall cease to operate from the date of disapproval.

(7) A Proclamation declaring that the security of Pakistan or any part thereof is threatened by war or external aggression may be made before the actual occurrence of war or any such aggression if the President is satisfied that there is imminent danger thereof.

Article 192

(1) While a Proclamation issued under Article 191 is in operation, the President may, by Order, declare that the right to move any court for the enforcement of such of the rights conferred by Part II as may be specified in the Order, and all proceedings pending in any court for the enforcement of the during emergency rights so specified, shall remain suspended for the period during which the Proclamation is in force.

(2) While a Proclamation issued under Article 191 is in operation, the President shall have power by Order to suspend the operation of the Proviso to clause (1) of Article 50

(3) Every Order made under this Article shall, as soon as may be, be laid before the National Assembly.

Article 193

(1) If the President, on receipt of a report from the Governor of a Province, is satisfied that a situation has arisen in which the government of the Province cannot be carried on in accordance with the Provisions of the Constitution, the President may by Proclamation-

(a) assume to himself, or direct the Governor of the Province to assume on behalf of the President, all or any of the functions of the Government of the Province, and all or any of the powers vested in, or exercisable by, any body or authority in the Province, other than the Provincial Legislature;

(b) declare that the powers of the Provincial Legislature shall be exercisable by, or under the authority of, Parliament;

(c) make such incidental and consequential provisions as appear to the President to be necessary or desirable for giving effect to the objects of the Proclamation, including provisions for suspending in whole or in part the operation of any provisions of the Constitution relating to any body or authority in the Province:

Provided that nothing in this Article shall authorize the President to assume to himself, or direct the Governor of the Province to assume on his behalf, any of the powers vested in, or exercisable by, a High Court, or to suspend either in whole or in part the operation of any provisions of the Constitution, relating to High Courts.

(2) A Proclamation under this Article (not being a Proclamation revoking a previous Proclamation) shall be laid before the National Assembly, and shall cease to operate at the expiration of two months, unless before the expiration of that period it has been approved by a resolution of the National Assembly, and may by a like resolution be extended for a further period not exceeding four months; but no such Proclamation shall in any case remain in force for more than six months:

Provided that if any such Proclamation (not being a Proclamation revoking a previous Proclamation) is issued at a time when the National Assembly stands dissolved, or if the dissolution of the National Assembly takes place during the period of two months referred to in this clause, the Proclamation shall cease to operate at the expiry of thirty days from the date on which the National Assembly first meets after its reconstitution, unless before the expiration of the said period of thirty days, a resolution approving the Proclamation has been passed by that assembly.

(3) Where by a Proclamation issued under this Article it has been declared that the powers of the Provincial Legislature shall be exercisable by or under the authority of Parliament, it shall be competent-

(a) to Parliament to confer on the President the power of the Provincial Legislature to make laws:

(b) to Parliament, or the President, when he is empowered under sub-clause (a), to make laws conferring powers and imposing duties, .or authorizing the conferring of powers and the imposition of duties, upon the Federation, or officers and authorities thereof;

(c) to the President, when the National Assembly is not in sessions, to authorize expenditure from the Provincial Consolidated Fund, whether the expenditure is charged by the Constitution upon that Fund or not, pending the sanction of such expenditure by Parliament;

(d) to the National Assembly by resolution to sanction expenditure authorized by the President under sub-clause (c)

(4) Any law made in exercise of the power of the Provincial Legislature by Parliament or the President, which Parliament or the President would not, but for the issue of a Proclamation under this Article have been competent to make, shall, to the extent of the incompetency, cease to have effect on the expiration of a period of six months after the Proclamation under this Article has ceased to operate, except as to things done or omitted to be done before the expiration of the said period.

Article 194

(1) If the President is satisfied that a situation has arisen whereby the financial stability or credit of Pakistan, or any part thereof, is threatened, he may after consultation with the Governors of the Provinces or with the Governor of the Province concerned, as the case may be, by Proclamation make a declaration to that effect, and while such a Proclamation is in operation, the executive authority of the Federation shall extend to the giving of directions to any Province to observe such principles of financial propriety as may be specified in the directions, and to the giving of such other directions as the President may deem necessary for the financial stability or credit of Pakistan or any part thereof.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in the Constitution, any such directions may include a provision requiring a reduction of the salary and allowances of all or any class of persons serving in connection with the affairs of a Province.

(3) While a Proclamation issued under this Article is in operation, the President may issue directions for the reduction of the salaries and allowances of all or any class of persons serving in connection with the affairs of the Federation, including the Judges of the Supreme Court and High Courts.

(4) The provisions of clause (2) of Article 193 shall apply to a Proclamation issued under this Article as they apply to a Proclamation issued under that Article.

Article 195

(1) A Proclamation issued under this Part may be varied or revoked by a subsequent Proclamation.

(2) The validity of any Proclamation issued or Order under this Part shall not be questioned in any court.

Article 196

Nothing in the Constitution shall prevent Parliament from making any law indemnifying any person in the service of the Federal or a Provincial Government, or any other person, in respect of any act done in connection with the maintenance or restoration of order in any area in Pakistan where martial law was in force, or validating any sentence passed, punishment inflicted, forfeiture ordered or other act done under martial law in such area.

Part 12: General Provisions

Chapter 1: Islamic Provisions

Article 197

(1) The President shall set up an organization for Islamic research and instruction in advanced studies to assist in the reconstruction of Muslim society on a truly Islamic basis.

(2) Parliament may by Act provide for a special tax to be imposed upon Muslims for defraying expenses of the organization set up under clause (1), and the proceeds of such tax shall not, notwithstanding anything in the Constitution, from part of the Federal Consolidated Fund.

Article 198

(4) The Constituent Assembly shall fix a day to be the Constitution Day, and the person elected as president under this Article shall, after taking an oath or affirmation in the form set out in paragraph 1 of the Second Schedule enter upon his office on that day.

First Schedule

Articles 32 and 33

Election of President

1. The Chief Election Commissioner shall hold and conduct any election to the office of President, and shall be the Returning Officer for such election.

2. The Chief Election Commissioner shall appoint Presiding Officers to preside at the meeting of the members of the National Assembly, which shall be held at Karachi, and at the meetings of the members of the Provincial Assemblies of East Pakistan and West Pakistan, which shall be held at Dacca and Lahore, respectively.

3. The Chief Election Commissioner shall by public notification fix the time and place for depositing nomination papers, holding a scrutiny, making withdrawals, if any, and holding the poll, if necessary.

4. At any time before noon on the day fixed for nomination any member of the National Assembly or of a Provincial Assembly may nominate for election as President a person qualified for election as President by delivering to the Presiding Officer of the Assembly of which he is a member, a nomination paper, signed by himself as proposer and by another member of that Assembly as seconder, together with a statement signed by the person nominated that that he consents to the nomination:

Provided that no person shall subscribe, whether as proposer or as seconder, more than one nomination paper at any one election.

5. The scrutiny shall be held by the Chief Election Commissioner at the time and place fixed by him, and if after scrutiny only one person remains validly nominated, the Chief Election Commissioner shall declare that person to be elected, or if more than one person remains validly nominated, he shall announce, by public notification, the names of the persons validly nominated, to be herein after called the candidates.

6. A candidate may withdraw his candidature at any time before noon on the day fixed for this purpose by delivering a notice in writing under his hand to the Presiding Officer with whom his nomination paper has been deposited, and a candidate who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under this paragraph shall not be allowed to cancel that notice.

7. If all but one of the candidates have withdrawn, that one shall be declared by the Chief Election Commissioner to be elected.

8. If there is no withdrawal, or if, after withdrawals have taken place, two or more candidates are left, the Chief Election Commissioner shall announce by public notification the names of the candidates, and their proposers and seconders, and shall proceed to hold a poll by secret ballot in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding paragraphs.

9. If a candidate whose nomination has been found to be in order dies after the time fixed for nomination, and a report of his death is received by the Presiding Officer before the commencement of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate, countermand the poll and report the fact to the Chief Election Commissioner, and all proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced anew in all respects as if for a new election:

Provided that no further nomination shall be necessary in the case of a candidate whose nomination was valid at the time of the countermanding of the poll:

Provided further that no person who has under paragraph 6 of this Schedule given notice of withdrawal of his candidature before the countermanding of the poll shall be ineligible for being nominated as a candidate for the election after such countermanding.

10. The poll shall be taken at the meetings of the members of the National Assembly and of each Provincial Assembly, and the respective Presiding Officers shall conduct the poll with the assistance of such officers as they may, with the approval of the Chief Election Commissioner, respectively appoint.

11. A ballot paper shall be issued to every member of the National Assembly, and of each Provincial Assembly, who presents himself for voting at the meeting of the members of the Assembly of which he is a member (hereinafter referred to as a person voting), and he shall exercise his vote personally by marking the paper in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding paragraphs.

12. The poll shall be by secret ballot by means of ballot papers containing the names of all the candidates in alphabetical order who have not withdrawn, and a person voting shall vote by placing a cross against the name of the person for whom he wishes to vote.

13. Ballot papers shall be issued from a book of ballot papers with counterfoils, the ballot papers and each counterfoil being unnumbered; and when a ballot paper is issued to a person voting his name shall be entered on the counterfoil and the ballot paper shall be authenticated by the initials of the Presiding Officer.

14. A ballot paper having been marked by the person voting shall be deposited by that person in a ballot box to be placed in front of the Presiding Officer.

15. If a ballot paper is spoiled by a person voting he may return it to the Presiding Officer, who shall issue a second ballot paper, cancelling the first ballot paper and marking the cancellation on the appropriate counterfoil.

16. A ballot paper shall be invalid if -

- (i) there is upon it any name, word or mark, other than the official number, by which the person voting may be identified; or
- (ii) it does not contain the initials of the Presiding Officer; or (iii) it does not contain a cross; or (iv) a cross is placed against the names of two or more candidates; or
- (v) there is any uncertainty as to the identity of the candidate against whose name the cross is placed.

17. After the close of the poll each Presiding Officer shall, in the presence of such of the candidates or their authorized representatives as may desire to be present, open and empty the ballot boxes and examine the ballot papers therein, rejecting any which are invalid, count the number of votes recorded for each candidate on the valid ballot papers, and communicate the number of the votes so recorded to the Chief Election Commissioner.

18. If there are only two candidates, the candidate who has obtained the larger number of votes shall be declared by the Chief Election Commissioner to be elected.

19. If there are three or more candidates, and one of those candidates has obtained a larger number of votes than the aggregate number of votes obtained by the remaining candidates, he shall be declared by the Chief Election Commissioner to be elected.

20. If there are three or more candidates, and the last preceding paragraph does not apply, a further poll shall be held in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Schedule, at which the candidate who obtained the smallest number of votes at the previous poll shall be excluded.

21. The three last preceding paragraphs shall apply in relation to the further poll and any subsequent poll which may be necessary under the provisions of these paragraphs.

22. Where at any poll any two or more candidates obtain an equal number of votes, then-

(a) if there are only two candidates for election, or

(b) if one of the candidates who obtained equality of votes is required to be excluded from a further poll under paragraph 20 of this Schedule, the selection of the candidate to be elected, or, as the case may be, excluded, shall be by drawing of lots.

23. When, after any poll, the counting of the votes has been completed, and the result of the voting determined, the Chief Election Commissioner shall forthwith announce the result to those present, and shall report the result to the Federal Government, who shall forthwith cause the result to be declared by a public notification.

24. The Chief Election Commissioner may, by public notification, with the approval of the President make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Schedule.

Sixth Schedule

Article 222

Election of President under Article 222

1. At any time before noon on the day preceding the day fixed for the election of the President, any member of the Assembly may propose a person for election by delivering to the Secretary of the Assembly a nomination paper signed by that member and stating that person consents to the nomination.
2. Any person who has been nominated may withdraw his candidature at any time prior to the holding of the election.
3. On the day fixed for the election the person presiding over the Assembly shall read out to the Assembly the names of the person; who have been duly nominated and have not withdrawn their candidature, together with the names of their proposers, and, if there is only one such person, shall declare that person to be duly elected. If there is more than one such person, the Assembly shall proceed to elect the President by secret ballot. The ballot shall be held in such manner as the person presiding over the Assembly may direct.
4. Where there are only two candidates for election, the candidate who obtains at the ballot the larger number of votes shall be declared elected. If two candidates obtain an equal number of votes, the determination of the election shall be by drawing of lots.
5. Where the number of persons who have been duly nominated and have not withdrawn their candidature exceeds two, and at the first ballot no candidate obtains more votes than the aggregate votes obtained by the other candidates, the candidate who has obtained the smallest number of votes shall be excluded from the election. Balloting shall then proceed, with the candidate obtaining the smallest number of votes at each ballot being excluded from the election until one candidate obtains more votes than the remaining candidate or than the aggregate votes of the remaining candidates, as the case may be, and such candidate shall be declared elected.
6. Where at any ballot any two or more candidates obtain an equal number of votes and one of them has to be excluded from the election under paragraph 5, the determination of the question as to which of the candidates whose votes are equal is to be excluded shall be by drawing of lots.

7. The meeting of the Assembly at which the election takes place shall be presided over by the Speaker, or, if the Speaker is unable to preside, by the Deputy Speaker, or if the Deputy Speaker is also unable to preside, by such person as may be determined by the Rules of the Assembly.

8. In this Schedule, "the Assembly" means, as respects the period before the Constitution Day the Constituent Assembly, and as respect the period commencing on the Constitution Day, the National Assembly.
